Providing goods and services

GENPART SERVICES LTD is committed to excellence in serving all customers by executing the customer service function in 10 major areas:

1. Communication

We recruit and train staff to serve in this department whom we have assessed and found to possess considerable skills (not just training) in:-

- Problems solving skills
- Objective communication skills
- Telephone skills - We will train staff to communicate with customers over the telephone in clear and plain language and to speak clearly and slowly.
- Record keeping & attention to details– We train our staff to keep record or telephone conversations by documenting and taking minutes of key meetings. These records are sent to the client representative to promote understanding of deliverables and to facilitate drafting of sales agreements.
- Charisma
- Multi-cultural sensitivity

2. Pre-sales Information & Agreements

We attempt to provide as much information as needed for decision making. Where applicable, we include options available to a client on matters of design, production and maintenance of items supplied

3. Billing

We are committed to providing accessible invoices to all our customers. For this reason, invoices will be provided in the following formats upon request: e.g. hard copy, large print, e-mail.

We will answer any questions customers may have about the content of the invoice by telephone or e-mail.

4. Multi-Channel Communication

Our policy is to maintain communication between one of our key staff and one or several of the client's representatives. Where the client has more than one representative (e.g. a committee or panel), record of communication between us, if required, is copied to others to quicken decision making, process audits and accountability.

5. Complain Handling

We have a listening management. Staff are required to escalate matters that exceed their authority and decision making scope to their supervisors or managers. When that happens, the client is informed of the shift and purpose. When necessity arises to revert to an assignment to the previous employee, the client is duly informed.

6. Disruption of Services

We will provide customers with notice in the event of a planned or unexpected disruption in the goods or services. This notice will include information about the reason for the disruption, its anticipated duration, and a description of an alternative service, if available.

The notice will be placed at all public entrances in our premises.

7. Training for staff

GENPART SERVICES LTD will provide training to all employees and others who deal with clients or other parties on their behalf, and all those who are involved in the development and approvals of customer service policies, practices and procedures.

This training is to be provided as soon as a staff commences his/her duties.

Training mainly focuses on GENPART SERVICES LTD's policies, practices and procedures relating to the customer service standards. This training is an on-going process.

8. Feedback Process

The ultimate goal of GENPART SERVICES LTD is to meet and surpass customer expectations while serving all its customers. Comments on our services regarding how well those expectations are being met are welcome and appreciated.

Feedback regarding the way GENPART SERVICES LTD provides goods and services to our clients can be e-mailed directly and in confidence to feedback@genpartservicesltd.com

Upon receipt, we will investigate the matter with the appropriate personnel and provide a written response within thirty (30) days.

9. Modifications to this or other policies

We are committed to developing customer service policies that enhance relationships and posterity. Using client feedback, record of new experiences, minutes from market / client representative meetings, these policies shall be improved periodically.

10. Record Keeping

GENPART SERVICES LTD will maintain accurate records of training delivered to our staff and make these records available for inspection as may be required.
